an easy guide to getting the best value bus travel in Newport

4 February 2024

great value to travel around town

At Newport Bus, we offer a wide range of value for money tickets to make travelling with us easy and affordable.

In this guide, you'll find info on the fares to travel around Newport (Zone 1), to Cardiff and Cwmbran (Zone 2), or to Chepstow, Monmouth or the rest of our network (Zone 3) along with our detailed zone map.

You'll also find how to get discounted tickets for regular travellers and young people and how you can pay for your ticket.

savings for regular travellers

If you travel regularly, save money with our weekly or 4-weekly tickets (mobile app or smartcard Bamboo, Passport & Passport Plus). You can save up to 54% compared with regular adult day tickets. Want to save even more? Ask your employer about our travel scheme to buy an annual bus ticket.

savings for young people

Aged between 5 and 15? Ask for a Bamboo ticket, available on the bus, the app or smartcard. You may need to show proof of age.

Aged between 16 and 21? Apply for a Welsh Government MyTravelPass and pay the Youth fare on all your bus travel in Wales.

Apply at mytravelpass.gov.wales

easy ways to pay

There are lots of convenient ways you can pay for your ticket with Newport Bus.

Cash

Please have the right money for your ticket - our drivers are not able to give change.

Contactless

We accept Visa, Mastercard, Android Pay and Apple Pay. If you register your card on the Newport Bus app you'll be able to track how much you spend on your bus travel.

Mobile app

Download the Newport Bus app to buy your tickets. You'll need an internet connection to activate your ticket, but not to scan it to travel on the bus.

Smartcards (Passport & Bamboo)

Our weekly, 4-weekly tickets and annual tickets can be added to a Newport Bus smartcard.

Request your free smartcard by email - sales@newporttransport.co.uk - or visit our depot to pick one up.
